NAUTILUS

We begin to travel the avenues of life with vigorous and determined bodies, with health, defiance, gaiety, self-esteem, freedom, curiosity. We are the intellectual, the beautiful, the athletic, the loving and the loved, the religious. From our souls come provoking questions. "These yearnings, why are they? These thoughts in the darkness, why are they?" We hesitate, "listening to others, considering well what they say, pausing, searching, receiving, contemplating." Gently, we divest our selves of their protective confinements; we bring our selves out from behind the adolescent screen of shy self-consciousness.

But the test of truth comes in the merging of our individual avenues of endeavor into the highway of life.

"Allons! We must not stop here! . . .

Allons! The road is before us!"

We leave the past behind. With hearts and hands outstretched to whatever lies ahead, we go straight for the goal: our reward, the honor of being called by God in Christ.

Healthy and eager, we enter into the many activities of campus living: a 7:30 class, a thought-stimulating chapel talk, a walk across the campus and a chat with a friend, hours of study in the library, a snack in the Dugout, a Crusader game, a time of communion with the Christ of the Cross. One brief day, with avenues for study and service, fun and fellowship, worship and achievement, planning and dreaming. . . . One brief day, one small step along the highway of life.

Dedication

Through the avenue of practical Christian living, you have instilled within us an appreciation of the Christian life.

Through the avenue of self-abandonment, you have challenged us to a life of complete dedication to God and man.

Through the avenue of communion with the Holy One, you have evidenced lives that have found strength in a holy quietness and an inner confidence.

In recognition of twenty-four years of devoted service to Eastern Nazarene College and her students, the Nautilus staff gratefully dedicates the 1963 NAUTILUS to you,

Professor and Mrs. Kent Goodnow.

Our President

Dr. Edward S. Mann

Eastern Nazarene College, A.B.
Boston University, A.M.
Northwest Nazarene College, LL.D.

Three of the roads which were traveled in Bible times should be selected by E.N.C. students today.

The first is the road to Damascus — the road of personal Christian experience. It was here that Paul met Christ and because of this, his life was forever changed.

The second way is the road to Emmaus — the road of divine fellowship. Although unrecognized by the disciples, Jesus walked with them and explained to them some of the simple, spiritual truths. They remembered ever afterward how their hearts burned within them as they walked with Him by the way.

There is also the road to Jericho — the road of Christian service. The Samaritan's heart was touched by the evident need of the man who had fallen among thieves. I am especially concerned that every graduate of E.N.C. be acutely aware of the great human needs about him, and that each one take an active part in serving mankind. It is only as we do this that our lives will be worth living, and we shall find true satisfaction in life.

Edward S. Mann

"There is no conflict between the best in education and the best in the Christian faith."

Bertha Munro

"The mature conscientious person combines inquiry and indecision in a life of intelligent, prayerful loyalty, both teachable and resolute."

Alvin H. Kauffman

Dean Emeritus

Dean Emeritus Bertha Munro is loved and respected by each student at E.N.C. Her keen interest, her devotion to God and to others, her thirst for knowledge, her love of truth, and her consistent Christian life have gained for her the highest measure of honor from the entire student body.

Dean of the College

Dr. Alvin Kauffman has been largely responsible for many of the academic advances of E.N.C. His vision, responsibility and devotion combine to produce effective leadership.

His busy schedule is never too full for a student with problems; whether they are academic, spiritual, or emotional. His devotion to his task is expressed through every phase of his life.

ACTIVITIES

Whether presiding at a regularly scheduled meeting, or conducting a chapel service or taking care of the candy machines, our President was tops.

Some Are Chosen to Lead, Some to Follow,

Doug Bean, C. J. Hauge, Alberta Sabino, Judy Williams, Kim Hanlin, Larry Gerhart, Paul Pierce, Al Yacubian, Keith Bell, Elmer Shaw, Gary Slick.

The Student Council got into full operation during the Student-Faculty workshop on September 1. Student leaders, and faculty members presented papers dealing with the academic, religious and social aspects of campus life.

The Big Brother and Sister program, Freshmen Orientation meetings, Chapel services, a magazine drive, a Foreign Student Scholarship and an International Relations Club were initiated by the Student Council under the excellent leadership of President Paul Pierce.

Marked changes in the social calendar meant additional work for many of the council members. However, these changes operated smoothly under Vice President Keith Bell's direction.

Professor and Mrs. Moore, Student Council Advisors for first semester, sing in a farewell chapel in their honor.

But All to Walk in Avenues of Truth . . .

President Paul Pierce presents the Moores with a tape recorded on behalf of the student body.

As the Alumni Return . . .

Alumni Albert Stiefel, Donald Strong, and Neale McLain present the Alumni Association to students during chapel.

An alumni banquet was followed by a concert presented by the Wind-Ensemble under the direction of Dr. Willwerth.

An Alumni-Crusader Game Kicks Off the Season.

Alumni Gerald Lashley and Merritt Mann prove to be too much for Crusader Chuck Zink.

Freshman Fred Smith seems to have found an interest greater than the game.

Students' Talents and Dr. Dygoski's "Know-how"

The Staring Match

Under the direction of Dr. Dygoski, Jerry McNeely's "The Staring Match" was presented in the college auditorium. Members of the cast were: Lowell Flanders, Janine Pringle, Mindy Taylor, Mark Taylor, Colin Woods, Fred Harrington, John Noren, Marilyn Baerman, Bob Kovach, Jim Conrad.

But Christmas Came So Quickly!

Under the new semester schedule, we were able to enjoy the Christmas festivities with the worry and tension of exams, reviews and term papers in the background.

Santa John Vigliotti presided at the Christmas Tree.

Vice-president Keith Bell made arrangements for the Christmas Banquet to which the men took their dates . . .

The Strains of Handel's MESSIAH Filled the Air . . .

An excellent presentation by the Choral Union climaxed weeks of intense rehearsals.

The program included the C major Trio by Mozart, B flat Trio by Schubert, and C minor Trio by Brahms.

John Ciardi

Noted poet, critic, and teacher John Ciardi lectured in the college auditorium on October 27.

In his lecture "What Good is a Poem?", Mr. Ciardi discussed the communication between the poet and the reader which is necessary for understanding poetry. Mr. Ciardi has authored several books including his well known volume How Does A Poem Mean?

Exploring Lands Down Under . . .

John Goddard, adventurer and explorer visited the E.N.C. campus on October 19.

Mr. Goddard's unique and interesting presentation of life in New Zealand, Australia, and New Guinea was well received by a captivated audience.

On November 16, E.N.C. featured as guest lecturer Edward R. Snow with an illustrated lecture "Mysterious Tales of the New England Coast."

A resident of neighboring Marshfield, Mr. Snow is a noted lecturer and television personality.

During his lecture Mr. Snow displayed his traveling museum of curios.

Stecher and Horowitz

Returning to E.N.C. again this year for an Artist Series concert the famous American duo pianists Stecher and Horowitz were well received by a capacity audience.

Melvin Stecher and Norman Horowitz are considered by many to hold first place among piano-duo teams on the American stage. They have traveled extensively through the United States and Canada as well as in many other countries.

Caribbean Cruise

Dr. E. E. Grosse, chairman of the Board of Trustees, presented Dr. and Mrs. Mann with a check for $2500. The money was to enable our President and First Lady to take a trip abroad, "whenever and wherever they chose."

This was the first time that Dr. and Mrs. Mann had taken an extended vacation in their thirty-eight years at E.N.C.

Their six week trip took the Manns to Jamaica, Hawaii and Haiti. The highlight of their trip was their visit to Haiti.

Accompanying Dr. and Mrs. Mann for part of their Caribbean cruise on the S/S Evangeline were Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Harris.

TWIRP WEEK Keeps ENC Men at Bay

A Laughing . . . Singing . . . Jolly Crowd of Seniors

Senior advisers, Professor and Mrs. Bradley, get equipped for an exciting day of skiing.

Senior

Senior Sneak, senior sneak,
How'd it go? How'd it go?
Snow and wind and ice,
Fireplace so nice
So much fun, so much fun.

Coach Bradley was surprised
When he saw before his eyes
Jerry Swartz and Doris
Standing on the ski slope
In a clinch, in a clinch.

Four were daring, climbing high
Jim and Carl, Bob and Dave,
Nancy rode a tractor;
Ann rode a stretcher;
Carried by patrol, handsome patrol.

Sherrill and Howie, weren't they wowie!
Dressed like twins, shirts alike.
Barb missed the trail,
Fell into a ditch;
Nolan took a slip, pins to the rip.

After an action-filled day the Seniors are ready to eat . . . Aren't you girls?

Relaxing Before the Busy Rush of Graduation . . .

Sneak

Then we had our skaters,
Paynter, Cove and Slick
Lindolph too, tho' it was new.
Jack, was the spectator.
Dale pushed all the cars.
What a crew, what a crew!

On the hill Patch took a spill
Audrey came later, our first aider.
Pat in the road
Instead of on the slope;
John snapped a picture what a dope.

Esther Swartz to the top,
Skied right down oh so fast.
Marilyn waited patiently
Out in the cold.
Where was Jim? Where was Jim?

Gay was there
Not a care.
Senior trip was so fine,
Now we're back to school.
Good times all are through.
What a farce! What a farce!

No, Nancy. That is not the way to do it — or is it? It's fun being rescued.

When the thermometer dropped below the zero mark, the skis were stored away while wits were matched in a game of Tiddly Winks.

Senior Recital . . . A Test of Quality

Selections of composers ranging as early as Buxtehude to as late as Dougherty made up the program for the Baccalaureate Degree Recital of Margaret Kinsey, vocal, accompanied by Mrs. Priscilla Stewart on January 26. Dr. Abraham Alter assisted on the viola for the Buxtehude and Brahms, with Gerald Swartz assisting on the Clarinet for a Mozart Concert Aria.

On April 9, Patricia Lockwood presented a vocal Degree Recital. The program included selections by composers as early as Bach and as contemporary as Villa Lobos. Mrs. Elizabeth Hodges assisted her at the piano and Mrs. Ellen Fryling provided a cello accompaniment.

For Student and Professor.

Lambert Brandes presented his Baccalaureate Organ Recital on April 30. The program included a moving performance of the Prelude and Fugue in C Minor by J.S. Bach and was powerfully concluded with the Passacaglia from Leo Sowerby's Symphony in G Major.

Selections by Jan Pieter Sweelinck and Jean Langlais were part of a Baccalaureate Organ Recital presented by Janet Irish Boren on May 4. A consistently fine performance also included sonatas by Bach and Mendelssohn.

A Mozart Concerto, featuring clarinet, piano and cello with Mrs. Hildegard Berthold as cellist, was one of the highlights of the Baccalaureate Degree Recital presented by Gerald Swartz, clarinet, accompanied by Dorothy Bausman, on February 16.

A Memory . . . A Remembrance . . .

The social highlight of the year, the Spring Party, was held this year at the beautiful Sidney Hill Country Club. The elegance of the Country Club received much competition from all the attractive E.N.C. couples in attendance. Floor length gowns in all shades were extremely popular this year as well as the stylish short formals. A delicious chicken dinner was served while strains of beautiful piano music were heard in the background. Following dinner an extremely unique and entertaining program was presented. Keith Bell, the chairman of the Spring Party, and his committee worked hard planning the evening's activities. The climax of the night came when Pres. Mann crowned this year's King and Queen, Jim Paynter and Audrey MacKay.

Crowned King and Queen were Jim Paynter and Audrey MacKay.

... For That First March Down the Aisle

For the fortieth time in the history of E.N.C. the Juniors line up to honor the Seniors and mark the beginning of the commencement activities.

For a number of weeks the Juniors have been planning, budgeting and decorating to make Junior-Senior Day better than it ever has been before.

For the ladies of the class it meant choosing a dress that everyone would like. This year the girls wore light blue dresses and carried bouquets of colored daisies and baby carnations.

Sixty-five members of the Junior class participated in the activities of the day.

March rehearsals, tux fittings, Toll House reservations and decorating were climaxed by the traditional banquet at the Toll House.

President of the Junior Class, Wayne Dunlop, arranged an excellent program emceed by Dr. Rigden.

"Every New Experience . . .

Dr. Mann introduced Dr. Ellwood A. Voller, speaker for the forty-first annual commencement program.

Assisted by the Brass Ensemble, the A Cappella Choir under the direction of Dr. Willwerth presented the musical selection Psalm 150.

... Widens Your Area of Awareness"

Dr. Ellwood A. Voller, president of Roberts Wesleyan College delivered the commencement address to one hundred eight graduates.

In his address Dr. Voller charged the graduates to consider carefully the use they made of their acquired knowledge.

"Instead of being directed by others, you will for the most part be at liberty, if not required, to determine your own course and make your own decisions."

Dr. Mann, conferred the honorary Doctor of Laws Degree on Dr. Voller.

From September to May . . .

Administrative Officers, Faculty and Trustees stand to honor the seniors as they begin their final march prior to receiving their degrees. A capacity audience was present to witness the culmination of college life for the seniors.

... Achievement Realized

By the power invested in him Dr. Mann conferred their respective degrees on one hundred eight graduates.

Facing new horizons — new challenges — new opportunities, the seniors have made their way from "the halls of ivy" to assume their stations in life.

Four students received certificates from the School of Practical Arts and Letters.

AREA OF WORSHIP

Rev. T. E. Martin, D.D.

Pastor's Message

"These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on earth." Heb. 11:13

Men of faith always confess that they are pilgrims. Their faith requires this of them. It is not that they are restless with dissatisfaction and frustration but rather that they seek a better country. Faith tells them of new frontiers to be explored and towards these they move with all deliberate speed.

Pilgrims do not necessarily progress along the road of life disdainful of all they see and experience. Here are things to appreciate and promising portrayals of things that shall last. The beauty and worth of what they encounter goes with them. The unworthy is left for the waste-lands as they appropriate what is good. They are moving ever but take with them so much that is of eternal worth.

If the men who are too easily satisfied linger and call the pilgrims vagabonds, they are not disturbed. They are neither inner-directed nor other-directed, but God directed. By faith they have embraced the promises and God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

Rev. Gordon Wetmore, an alumnus of E.N.C., returned to the campus in March as Associate pastor of the College Church. In a few short weeks students learned to love and appreciate Rev. Wetmore as a vital member of our college community.

Class Prayer Meetings

In an effort to increase the vitality and meaningfulness of the mid-week prayer service, our college pastor, Dr. Martin, devised a system of conducting simultaneous prayer meetings in separate rooms.

Periodically, these separate groups met in a combined prayer meeting with the faculty.

Sophomores listen thoughtfully to their speaker in Spangenberg Parlor.

Bill Gough leads the Freshman in singing with guests Dr. Young and Rev. Wetmore.

The Juniors met weekly in the Fellowship Hall with guest speakers.

Dormitory Prayer Cells

Mrs. Wetmore takes time from a busy schedule to speak to a group of girls in a Tuesday evening prayer cell.

A busy day's schedule is begun in moments of silent meditation and prayer. Here a student finds a quiet place in the Memorial prayer room.

An opportunity to discuss problems and to share experiences is offered by dormitory prayer cells. A brief period of scripture reading climaxes a busy day.

Chapels

Dr. R. T. Williams, a frequent visitor to our campus, captures his audience of faculty and students with his stimulating, challenging and contemporary messages.

The chapel service is a significant part of our college program. Devotional chapels, lecture series, guest business and professional speakers comprise the scope of our chapel services.

The Juniors presented the Thanksgiving Chapel with the theme "Let All the People Praise Thee." The entire chapel was conducted from the adjoining choir room with students from foreign countries participating.

Lecture Series

Rev. Fletcher Spruce, Superintendent of the New England District was the speaker for the Opening Convention held from September 6-9.

E.N.C. was privileged to have Dr. R.T. Williams as the evangelist for the annual Fall Revival. Dr. Williams' subject for the revival was: "The Claims of Christ in Relationship to Specific Tension Areas of Modern Life." Dr. Williams also initiated discussion groups to discuss problems of Christian living in modern times.

Dr. E. S. Phillips, pastor of Bethany First Church in Bethany, Oklahoma, delivered the Kauffman Lectures. The lectures are sponsored annually by Mr. Elmer Kauffman in the interest of evangelism.

An E.N.C. alumnus, Dr. Russell DeLong returned to his alma mater to deliver the R. T. Williams lectures on January 14 and 15. Dr. DeLong lectured on the seven anxieties on men: boredom, frustration, insincerity, aloneness, disillusionment, complacency and despair.

Dr. George E. Failing, editor of the Wesleyan Methodist delivered the Gould Lectures choosing as his subject: Sanctification and the Holy Spirit. The Gould Lectures are sponsored annually by Dr. J. Glenn Gould in memory of his father, the Rev. John Gould.

General Executive Secretary of the N.Y.P.S., Mr. Paul Skiles was the guest speaker for the Youth Revival held in February. The theme for the revival was "His on Call." A fireside hour climaxed the Youth Week activities.

Dr. G. B. Williamson, General Superintendent in the Church of the Nazarene and former President of E.N.C., was the evangelist for the Spring Revival.

AVENUES OF SERVICE . . .

Richard Jones, Sally Kauffman, Ann Whitaker, Bob Kovach, Mary Coleman, Stephen Perry.

Student religious organizations provided an opportunity for both worship and service. The N.Y.P.S. under the direction of President Bob Kovach conducted services following the Sunday evening services.

Members of the Evangelistic Association were divided into fifteen teams with a leader for each. Conducting services in Boston missions, visiting nursing homes and singing in the hospital choir were part of the activities of the Evangelistic Association under the leadership of President Jim Stark.

Jim Stark, Sandra Pierce, Bob Howard.

Jim Stark takes time to speak to a patient in a Wollaston nursing home.

The Gordon College Choir presents a sacred concert sponsored by the N.Y.P.S.

The Courriers Quartet presents an evening service in music sponsored by the Student Council in conjunction with the college church.

Missionary Workshop

Miss Evelyn Ver Hoek, missionary to Guatemala, presents the challenge of the work in Guatemala.

The missionary workshop saw the fruition of the Student Missionary Fellowship's intense efforts and long planning. The workshop theme, "So Send I You," presented the challenge of service with a fresh vital approach.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry Rich, missionaries to Haiti, by a display made by members of the Missionary Fellowship.

Rev. John Holstead, presently serving in Formosa, discusses customs of the people of Taiwan.

E.N.C. Representatives

Traveling for their first time during the summer of 1963 is the Messengers Quartet composed of all Freshmen: Burton Dunlop, Stanley Woods, David Moore, Michael Shetler.

Touring the Zone is not a new experience for Keith Bell, Dave Johnson or Chuck Lunn as it is for the new member of the quartet, Jim Casler.

Stanton Lockwood, Dale Mingledorf, John Nielson and Allan Gray, all Sophomores, will also be traveling for their first summer.

Timeout — and one man does the talking. The key to much of the Crusaders's success is found in these moments when Coach Bradley's ability to analyze the situation can change a losing cause to victory.

Having lost four of the top six varsity players from the previous year's squad, it looked like a rebuilding year for the Crusader basketball team. However, after a slow start, the squad began to find itself and ended with a fourteen won — six lost record.

The good season was the result of a number of factors. Gary Jones and Chuck Zink, both freshmen, added rebounding strength and consistent scoring. Two sophomores, Ken Morrison and Jerry McCloy, moved up to starting positions and showed much improvement over their play of the previous year.

A good portion of the scoring for the season came from the two guards, Jim Knight and Ray Baltz. Knight had better than a fifteen point per game average and came up with one of his finest efforts in the final game of the King's College Tournament. Ray Baltz averaged better than twenty-five points a game which placed him as one of the top scorers in small college basketball in the country. He passed the 1,000 point mark and set a new individual scoring record when he made 54 points against Gordon College.

"Hey! You can't do that!" A Purple Knight from Kings College seems determined to stop the scoring drive of Gary Jones.

Hard-driving Ken shows how the familiar lay-up pays off and lays the ball high on the backboard.

Crusader Cheerleaders provide incentive for our hard-working team.

A McCloy trademark — under and up — as Jerry sneaks by his opponent for two more points.

Morrison drives in for a sure two points, flanked by Zink and McCloy.

Ray Baltz shows what makes him such an offensive threat — his ability to score inside as well as his noted jump-shot.

Big Chuck Zink proves too much for the defending Parson from Nyack.

Some thoughtfully . . . some expressively saders.

Three six-footers do not deter co-captain
 Jim Knight. His driving hook scores against Kings College.

The climax of a long season. Dr. Robert
 Cook, president of Kings College, presents co-captains Baltz and Knight the winning trophy for the 7th Annual Christian College Tournament.

Starting their second full season of baseball, the Crusaders fielded a veteran team. After losing the first two games they suddenly put together some good hitting and pitching and ran up a string of five victories. One of the more exciting games was against Husson when E.N.C. came up with a four run final inning to win 6-5. Most of these wins were on the home field. When the Crusaders took to the road they lost the winning touch and the pitchers failed to do the job on opposing batters.

Most of the pitching chores were handled by Dave Pennybaker, Chuck Aubit and Glenn Rose. Dave Brown led the team in hitting and played consistently good baseball. Howie Williams did a good job in the catching department and came up with some timely hitting. Both Jim Barefoot at shortstop and Al Yacubian at first had good seasons at the plate. Ray Baltz at third base and Tom Snyder at second each showed some good fielding at their respective positions and took part in a number of double plays.

Tom Snyder gets set to clear the bases and fill the scoreboard.

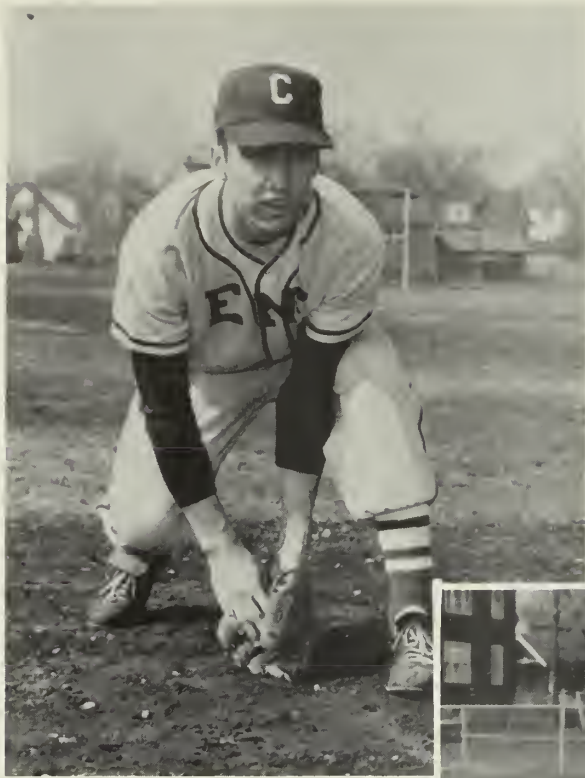

When the team is in a huddle it is all business — the business of winning.

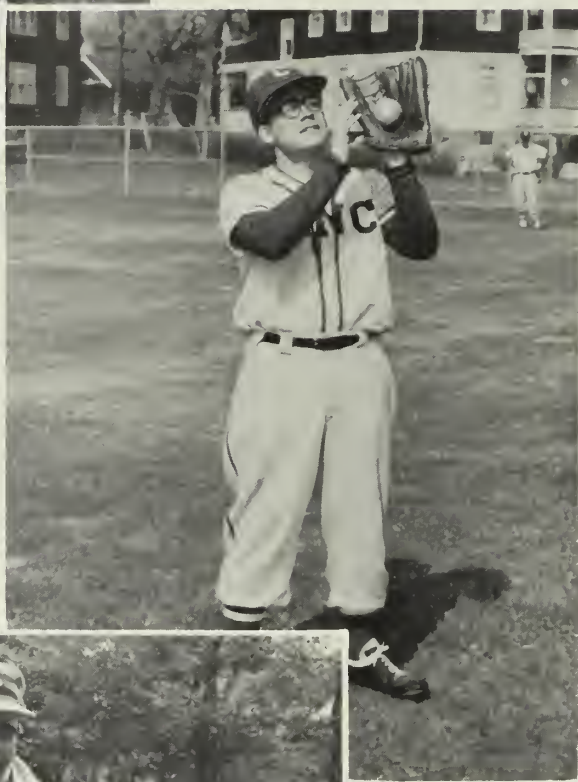

Howie eagerly awaits the autograph of fellow Crusader, Big Yac.

From the Editor's Desk . . .

The 1963 Nautilus has been made possible through the combined efforts of students, faculty and advertisers. The editor wishes to take this opportunity to express his sincere thanks to:

Dr. Alvin Kauffman, faculty advisor —
Mr. Thomas McHugh, representative of American Yearbook Company —
Mr. Edward Percy and the staff of Miller Studio —
Our Advertisers who have made this annual financially possible —
And the 1963 Nautilus staff.

We trust that you will enjoy your Nautilus.
